

Lead Barista – Part Time with Rotating Weekends

If you love great coffee and you'd like to be part of a community-driven organization that's passionate about helping people, we want to meet you!

Job Description

As a Lead Barista, you will be guiding our team of volunteer baristas throughout their shifts. This includes understanding how to make each drink and food item and effectively teaching others how to do the same. You will be in charge of café operations including opening and closing procedures depending on the shift.

When you work at The Hub, you are supporting local nonprofits, as well as becoming part of a larger community. Your voice will be respectfully heard, and you can know the success in café operations contributes to nonprofits throughout the county. This position offers competitive barista pay, rotating weekends, effective training, and flexible scheduling within reason.

Desired Personality Traits:

- Personable - If you are energized by helping others and have a knack for customer service, then this is the position for you!
- Altruistic - Our organization is driven through serving local non-profits; it's who we are. This position requires a team mentality; any job that needs to be done is worth doing.
- Self-Starter - We're looking for people unafraid to take initiative and problem solve independently. We're a small group that makes a huge impact. Someone highly driven is a must!
- Hardworking, reliable, and full of integrity within any given task
- Natural Leader - The ability to make decisions, answering questions, listening to others, and working side-by-side with a crew of volunteer baristas is vital for this position.

Job Requirements:

- Previous barista experience required
- Serve as a source of information about coffee, brew techniques, and menu recommendations
- Willingness to learn and demonstrate food preparation, cash drawer management, cleaning, and other related tasks

- Ability to learn and serve as a source of a basic information for customers interested in volunteering
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
